

TRANSITION MINISTER

Are you passionate about helping God's people learn more about their faith so that they can engage better with Mission?

Are you energetic, innovative and resilient? Do you enjoy change and challenge? If so, we would like to talk to you.

We are a diverse parish of three churches in North Reading, striving to work more closely together through Partnership for Missional Church to discern God's preferred and promised future.

We are looking for a gifted Transition Minister to help us focus on the transformation of St John's Caversham into a flourishing church serving its local community. This is a time limited post for 3 years initially.
